

JUST IN, A LARGE INVOICE OF Bed Room Furniture

FROM ONE OF THE BEST GRAND RAPIDS FACTORIES

Elegant designs in solid mahogany. We sell the suites complete or pieces separately.

Beds, Dressers, Chiffoniers, Ladies' Dressing Tables, Cheval Mirrors, Writing Tables and Wash Stands.

It is a pleasure for us to show, come often.

EMERSON & SON

Everything for Housekeeping
BRATTLEBORO, VT.

Do You Want a Home or Investment?

The John Galvin estate on Walnut street is offered for sale through our agency. This is a unique opportunity for a home or investment. The property is situated on a large lot and is well suited for a home or for investment. The house is a large, comfortable home with many modern conveniences. The lot is large and is well suited for a home or for investment. The property is situated on a large lot and is well suited for a home or for investment. The house is a large, comfortable home with many modern conveniences. The lot is large and is well suited for a home or for investment.

Milk Producers Look

Gluten, per hundred,	$1.50
Distiller's Grains, per hundred,	$1.65
Union Grains, per hundred,	$1.70
Ajax Flakes, per hundred,	$1.65
Quaker Dairy Feed, per hundred,	$1.25
Sugar, per hundred,	$1.25
Linseed, per hundred,	$1.10

These prices are below cost but we simply must empty our warehouse as the Railroad want it at once.

E. CROSBY & CO.

Warehouse Call 135
Office Calls 104-105

HAIR AND SCALP 50 HORSES

My twelfth fall sale of Horses will take place on Thursday, Oct. 17

Will arrive Oct. 15 with two carloads of fresh country horses; pairs 2000 to 3400 pounds each, singles 1000 to 1700 pounds each. I will have about 75 fresh horses and 75 well broken horses, 800 to 1600 pounds each. Some extra good pairs in this lot. Drivers and workers, 2000 to 3000 pounds each. Among them you can find anything you may wish for, from a cheap horse to a No. 1 draft horse. Also some two or three speedy horses. Anyone who ever attended my sales knows that I advertise just what I have, and sell everything for the high dollar without limit or reserve. Each and every horse warranted as represented or return and get your money back. Will also have 2 two-horse dumpcarts, nearly new, several buggies and wagons, several sets of heavy and driving harness; have been used but little.

Anyone wishing to dispose of horses at this sale can do so. Notify me as early as possible.

Remember the day and date - Thursday, Oct. 17 at 10:30 a. m., sharp. Sale positive, rain or shine.

M. J. TETRAULT, Prop.
Main St., Greenfield, Mass.
Abram Giddon, Auctioneer.

CHRYSANTHEMUMS

A very choice lot just coming on. Prompt attention given to all orders.

For everything in the floral line, try
HOPKINS, the Florist
144 Western Ave., Brattleboro, Vt.
Telephone 457. On our line.

Miss Mary Fletcher Cox will open her classes in
GYMNASTICS AND AESTHETIC
DANCING
for ladies and children, October 21. Address the Colonial, telephone 608-W.

SECURITY—SERVICE

These Are the Two Essentials in Banking
—THE—
BRATTLEBORO TRUST COMPANY
Offers You Both

With a capital of $100,000.00, a stockholders' liability of $100,000.00, and a steadily increasing surplus it offers to its depositors absolute security.

Its Board of Directors is made up of active men who Manage the affairs of the Bank.

The BRATTLEBORO TRUST COMPANY can serve you either in the Savings Department or the Commercial Department—or both.

Night School BEGINS

October 15

Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Typewriting, Civil Service, Penmanship, Special English Classes, etc.

CLAWSON-HAMILTON COLLEGE

INCORPORATED
BRATTLEBORO, VERMONT.

WANTED.

WANTED—Laundress at Home for Agent.
41-11

WANTED—Board and room for man, wife and child. Apply Phoenix office.

WANTED—Live poultry and strictly fresh eggs. EVANS BROS., Townshend, Vt.

WANTED—Farm with stock, crops and tools. easy payments. P. O. Box 382, Chester, Vt.

WANTED—The care of aged or invalid people for their farm or home. Box 322.

WANTED—Five young men to pick apples. State wages in full letter. O. W. AMIDON, Grove P. O., Halifax, Vt.

WANTED—Young man of good habits to learn the building business. Apply to F. L. W. BROS., new Crosby elevator, J. C. Pellet, Mgr.

WANTED—By young man, nice furnished room, well heated, in central location, hot and cold water. Room with board preferred. Address W. C. 40-1W The Phoenix office.

WOMEN—If you want work, sell guaranteed hostess to wear; big commission; make $10 daily; experience unnecessary. Address INTERNATIONAL MILLS, 3038 Chestnut, Philadelphia, Pa.

MEN—If you want work, sell guaranteed hostess to wear; big commission; make $10 daily; experience unnecessary. Address INTERNATIONAL MILLS, 3038 Chestnut, Philadelphia, Pa.

WANTED—Experienced lady stenographer and cashier would like permanent position. Have had little experience as bookkeeper. Best of references. Address Box 50, R. F. D. No. 1, White River Junction, Vt.

Wanted, Country Boy Wanting Education
I live in Springfield, Mass.; have 3 cows, a horse and some hens. I want a young man to take care of them, and go to school evenings.

For wages, etc., address John McKean, 469 Main Street, Springfield, Mass.

Wanted, a Young Man who desires to learn the grain business, one willing to work. Good references to be furnished.

E. CROSBY & COMPANY

Brattleboro, Vt., Oct. 4, 1912.

MADAM DEMARA'S

Hair and Scalp
Invigorator

I wish to notify the public that my hair invigorator will grow hair on bald heads, and also cleanses the scalp of any infestation, such as dandruff or any scalp trouble. Will also stop the hair from coming out, of old and young. Myself and daughter are the proof. It shows what it has done for us and many others. Price 50 cents a bottle; also 50 cents for treatment. Strictly pure. Without spirit or drugs. Shampooing 50 cents. Open Aug. 20.

MADAM DEMARA
67 Main Street Brattleboro, Vt.

6% MORTGAGES 6%

THAYER & GALE
Minneapolis, Minn.
Good Vermont References.

BRICK

VERMONT BRICK COMPANY
PUTNEY, VT.

Manufacturers of high grade building brick

Pay Highest Cash Prices for Rags,
Rubbers, Metals, Hides, Skins and Bones

GEORGE GASS, 22 FLAT STREET
Telephone 550-M.

The "BEST SELLING" new BOOKS and hundreds of titles in the POPULAR EDITIONS at CLAPP & JONES

WEAR RUBBERS
This Winter

BOYCE'S
TRYMORE
Havana 5c Cigar

"Try one and you'll try more."

APPLES! APPLES!
Baldwins and Greenings

The best we ever had, from sprayed trees. Call at our Market and see the fruit or send an order.

W. F. RICHARDSON CO.

NOTICE
I, Floyd G. Coolidge, of Springfield, Mass., will no longer be liable for bills contracted by my wife, she refusing to live with me as a loyal wife. 40-42

PUBLIC STENOGRAPHER
Katharine Dunlevy Room 6, Crosby Block
Telephone 31-12

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—No. 1 horse hay. HENRY R. BROWN, Brattleboro, Vt. 35-11

FARMS—Weekly circular free. Dept. 161, P. F. Leland, 31 Milk St., Boston.

FOR SALE—Thoroughbred Chester White pigs. TOWN FARM, Brattleboro, Vt. 35-11

FOR SALE—Hay, loose or baled, for cash only. HOUGHTON FARM, Putney, Vt. 35-11

FOR SALE—A new house on Belmont Ave. A bargain for somebody. 35-11

FOR SALE—1 cheap horse, 1 heavy work horse. Enquire of W. F. RICHARDSON CO. 35-11

FOR SALE—Good work horse, weight 1200. L. A. HOWARD, Brattleboro, Vt. 35-11

FOR SALE—Fine pair Holstein steers, 3 years old. Broken to work. L. O. CLAPP, Northfield, Mass. 40-42

FOR SALE—4 show cases, 1 wall case, 1 night class case and table. Can be seen at store. H. H. THOMPSON, 35-11

FOR SALE—Well-bred Bull Orpington hens. Price reasonable. FAYETTE MILLER, McVeigh Farm, Brattleboro, Vt. 40-11

FOR SALE—Two houses: 1 building lot 4 by 8 rods. Must be sold. C. W. WARD, 12 Pleasant St., Brattleboro, Vt. 41-1W

FOR SALE—Two-tenement house and location in Brattleboro. Good references. 41-1W

FOR SALE—Registered Ayrshire bull, 15 months old, good individual from heavy producing and prize winning stock. FAYETTE MILLER, McVeigh Farm, Brattleboro, Vt. 40-11

FOR SALE
Pair of Well Matched Horses

Young and sound. Good drivers and extra good to work. Weight between 2000 and 2600. Address W. B. HOUGHTON, West Brattleboro, Vt.

WORK HORSES

Four pairs of excellent farm and draft horses and two single work horses of unusual quality. One pair of beautifully matched bays is a remarkable team for combined work and driving, tractable, active, low set and rugged. Charles W. Bosworth, Maple Grove Farm, Walpole, N. H.

TO RENT.

TO RENT—Nice furnished room. P. J. FAIRBANKS, 25 Oak St.

TO RENT—Furnished room with heat and gas. "K" care The Phoenix.

TO RENT—Two pleasant tenements at 6 Myrtle street. C. B. CROWELL.

TO RENT—Two tenements on Birge street. HOLDEN & MARTIN. 35-11

TO RENT—Pleasant 7-room house. Inquire of H. F. WEATHERHEAD, West Brattleboro. 37-11

TO RENT—Preferably to young woman—pleasant furnished room, heated. Inquire of MISS FARNUM, Phoenix office.

AUCTION SALE

25 COWS 25

I will sell by public auction at the Doolittle farm, situated on Orchard street, Brattleboro, Vt.

Saturday, October 19, 1912

At 1 o'clock sharp

Twenty-five cows in first-class condition; some due soon, one with calf by her side, part Friesian, and the rest in the early winter. Also three shoats and two or three large bays of hay.

MERTON A. DOOLITTLE.
A. W. J. Wilkins, Auctioneer.

JOB PRINTING.

E. L. HILDRETH & CO.

When men talk of safety

they think of insurance. We offer the kind of insurance which gives the best service under all conditions. National Life Insurance Company, Montpelier, Vt. (Mutual).

H. E. TAYLOR & SON,
Insurance, Crosby Block, Brattleboro.

The Vermont Phoenix.

TEN PAGES
BRATTLEBORO.
FRIDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1912.

THE VERMONT PHOENIX.

Published in Brattleboro every Friday by THE VERMONT PHOENIX COMPANY
W. E. HUBBARD
President and Treasurer.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE $1.50 A YEAR:
$1.00 for eight months; 75 cents for six months; 50 cents for four months; 40 cents for three months. All subscriptions are payable strictly in advance, and all papers are stopped promptly at their expiration unless subscriptions are renewed.

Rates of display advertising furnished on application. Small classified advertisements, 10 cents per line first insertion, five cents per line each subsequent insertion.

(Entered at the Brattleboro post office as second class mail matter.)

Statement of the Ownership and Management of The Vermont Phoenix.

By recent act of Congress all newspapers in the United States must have a sworn statement published in them concerning their ownership and management.

The Vermont Phoenix is published at Brattleboro, Vt., every Friday. W. E. Hubbard is editor, managing editor, business manager and owner. The paper is published under the firm name of The Vermont Phoenix Company. This statement was sworn to in Brattleboro, Sept. 28, 1912, before Sanford A. Daniels, notary public, and two copies were given to Kittredge Haskins, postmaster in Brattleboro, Vt.

Gov. Wilson's attitude toward President Taft is in striking contrast with that of Col. Roosevelt. In his Minnesota speech he said: "I want to pay my tribute of respect to Mr. Taft. I think nobody who fully understands the facts will deny the patriotism, the integrity and the honesty of purpose of the man who sits in the White House."

The Democratic candidate feels that in honesty and justice he must admit the sterling qualities of the present incumbent of the White House, though differing from him in political policy.

The defection of Gov. Hadley of Missouri, who has come out publicly in support of President Taft, is a staggering blow to the third-term candidacy. His position today is a rebuke to all the talk of a "steal" in the Republican national convention. Hadley was the Roosevelt floor leader in the convention and was in a position to have an intimate knowledge of facts concerning contested delegations. Gov. Hadley's veracity and integrity have not been impugned heretofore. To continue the talk about "stealing" is to brand Hadley as an accessory after the fact. Gov. Deneen of Illinois is another erstwhile Roosevelt leader who is now supporting the regular Republican ticket. Charles S. Baxter, who headed the list of Roosevelt delegates at-large in Massachusetts, has made an outright declaration this week in support of President Taft.

The Greenfield Recorder clamors for a change in the direct primary laws in Massachusetts. It claims that in practice the primaries fail to register the opinions of a sufficient number of voters to make them effective, that they invite rather than eliminate the use of money in winning nominations, and that they dissipate rather than increase party responsibility. In closing an interesting discussion of the failure of the law to accomplish what was expected the Recorder says: "Years ago the state (Massachusetts) led the country in adoption of the secret ballot in protection of the voter's free and unhampered action. Just now we have set up a process which destroys the secrecy of his action, puts him in open declaration of his party connection and records him on a roll from which he cannot escape except by a burdensome process. Return to the conventional system is not likely, but it will come by demand of the people themselves if the law stands as it now is. It is the friends of the primary that must make the changes in the method that will save it from destruction. They have cause to study and think and act."

The recommendations of the committee of nine, looking toward educational reform in Vermont, published in The Phoenix last week, are worthy of careful consideration by every member of the legislature. There is nothing partisan about them, in fact the main object of these propositions is to take the educational system out of politics. A bill will soon be introduced at Montpelier reorganizing the state board of education, giving it large powers and duties. The state superintendent of education is to be the executive officer of the board and appointed by the board. If the bill becomes a law, the state superintendent elected by seven members of the board of education, will not likely be so much interested in politics as he naturally would be if elected by a legislature of 277 members. Other changes in existing law will be suggested only, but it is expected the committee on education in both House and Senate will pay some attention to what the educators of the state have offered for their consideration. If the state board of education is reorganized it will remain for Governor Fletcher to name the very best men and women in the state. They ought to be chosen for their fitness alone and not for their opinions on the normal school situations, the present state superintendent or any other controversial matter.

Saved Leg of Boy

"It seemed that my 14-year-old boy would have to lose his leg, on account of a very ugly ulcer, caused by a bad burn," wrote D. F. Howard, Aquino, N. C. "All remedies and doctor's treatment failed till we tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and cured him with one box." Cures burns, boils, skin eruptions, piles; 25c at Wilfred P. Root's and F. L. Holden's.

ROEL SUPPORTING PRESIDENT TAFT

Prominent Democrat Has No Use for Wilson or Roosevelt

Thinks Good Times and Plenty of Work
Better than Low Cost of Living With Empty Pocket Books.

It was with no small degree of satisfaction that Republicans in this village learned yesterday that Austin W. Roel, a well-known Democrat and nominee of that party for senator from the southern district of Windham county, was an outspoken supporter of William H. Taft for President. For a number of days the Republicans have felt that the tide was turning, quietly, but none the less surely, toward President Taft, but support from Democratic circles hardly was to be expected. Mr. Roel is still a Democrat, but at this period in the country's progress he believes that President Taft should be continued in office for another term.

When the report reached The Phoenix office that Mr. Roel, one of the best-known Democrats in Windham county, had announced his intention not to be governed by Democratic partisan influences he was called by telephone and was asked if the report was correct. With characteristic frankness he said: "I am still a Democrat," said Mr. Roel to the man at the telephone, "and I do not say that I shall vote for Taft in November, but I think he is the best man for the place and I hope he will be elected. The country never was in a more prosperous condition than it is today, and I believe in letting well enough alone. The cost of living may be high, but I would rather have it so and be getting good pay than to have things cheap and nothing to pay for them with."

"Help is scarce, which shows that everybody is busy and receiving good wages. The farmer is getting higher prices for his produce than he has been able to get before for many years, and I don't believe he will vote for any change in administration now. My advice to the laboring man is to support Taft. It will be for their interest to have things again, just as sure as the world."

"You know I always say just what I think," asserted Mr. Roel, "and I'm telling you now. I don't feel if I wasn't a Democrat I believe I would take the stump for Taft."

Mr. Roel, who is superintendent of the Brattleboro Retreating Farm, is known by farmers and others throughout the country, and the statements here quoted, coming from a man of his standing and a man of his opinions in Democratic circles, must make it apparent to an extent that the Democrats are not so thoroughly entrenched in the present political campaign as they have been credited with being.

When asked what his opinion of Roosevelt was, Mr. Roel answered: "I have a pretty small opinion of him. He isn't a man for the place. And 'Grandma' Wilson may be all right to run a college, but he isn't a big enough man for the presidency. They can't get a better talker than he is in the chair now, and he ought to be re-elected. One thing that we ought to be mighty careful of is how we meddle with the tariff. If we go to monkeying with it without knowing what we are about we'll have to do it again, just as sure as the world."

When asked what his opinion of Roosevelt was, Mr. Roel answered: "I have a pretty small opinion of him. He isn't a man for the place. And 'Grandma' Wilson may be all right to run a college, but he isn't a big enough man for the presidency. They can't get a better talker than he is in the chair now, and he ought to be re-elected. One thing that we ought to be mighty careful of is how we meddle with the tariff. If we go to monkeying with it without knowing what we are about we'll have to do it again, just as sure as the world."

When asked what his opinion of Roosevelt was, Mr. Roel answered: "I have a pretty small opinion of him. He isn't a man for the place. And 'Grandma' Wilson may be all right to run a college, but he isn't a big enough man for the presidency. They can't get a better talker than he is in the chair now, and he ought to be re-elected. One thing that we ought to be mighty careful of is how we meddle with the tariff. If we go to monkeying with it without knowing what we are about we'll have to do it again, just as sure as the world."

When asked what his opinion of Roosevelt was, Mr. Roel answered: "I have a pretty small opinion of him. He isn't a man for the place. And 'Grandma' Wilson may be all right to run a college, but he isn't a big enough man for the presidency. They can't get a better talker than he is in the chair now, and he ought to be re-elected. One thing that we ought to be mighty careful of is how we meddle with the tariff. If we go to monkeying with it without knowing what we are about we'll have to do it again, just as sure as the world."

When asked what his opinion of Roosevelt was, Mr. Roel answered: "I have a pretty small opinion of him. He isn't a man for the place. And 'Grandma' Wilson may be all right to run a college, but he isn't a big enough man for the presidency. They can't get a better talker than he is in the chair now, and he ought to be re-elected. One thing that we ought to be mighty careful of is how we meddle with the tariff. If we go to monkeying with it without knowing what we are about we'll have to do it again, just as sure as the world."

When asked what his opinion of Roosevelt was, Mr. Roel answered: "I have a pretty small opinion of him. He isn't a man for the place. And 'Grandma' Wilson may be all right to run a college, but he isn't a big enough man for the presidency. They can't get a better talker than he is in the chair now, and he ought to be re-elected. One thing that we ought to be mighty careful of is how we meddle with the tariff. If we go to monkeying with it without knowing what we are about we'll have to do it again, just as sure as the world."

When asked what his opinion of Roosevelt was, Mr. Roel answered: "I have a pretty small opinion of him. He isn't a man for the place. And 'Grandma' Wilson may be all right to run a college, but he isn't a big enough man for the presidency. They can't get a better talker than he is in the chair now, and he ought to be re-elected. One thing that we ought to be mighty careful of is how we meddle with the tariff. If we go to monkeying with it without knowing what we are about we'll have to do it again, just as sure as the world."

When asked what his opinion of Roosevelt was, Mr. Roel answered: "I have a pretty small opinion of him. He isn't a man for the place. And 'Grandma' Wilson may be all right to run a college, but he isn't a big enough man for the presidency. They can't get a better talker than he is in the chair now, and he ought to be re-elected. One thing that we ought to be mighty careful of is how we meddle with the tariff. If we go to monkeying with it without knowing what we are about we'll have to do it again, just as sure as the world."

When asked what his opinion of Roosevelt was, Mr. Roel answered: "I have a pretty small opinion of him. He isn't a man for the place. And 'Grandma' Wilson may be all right to run a college, but he isn't a big enough man for the presidency. They can't get a better talker than he is in the chair now, and he ought to be re-elected. One thing that we ought to be mighty careful of is how we meddle with the tariff. If we go to monkeying with it without knowing what we are about we'll have to do it again, just as sure as the world."

When asked what his opinion of Roosevelt was, Mr. Roel answered: "I have a pretty small opinion of him. He isn't a man for the place. And 'Grandma' Wilson may be all right to run a college, but he isn't a big enough man for the presidency. They can't get a better talker than he is in the chair now, and he ought to be re-elected. One thing that we ought to be mighty careful of is how we meddle with the tariff. If we go to monkeying with it without knowing what we are about we'll have to do it again, just as sure as the world."

When asked what his opinion of Roosevelt was, Mr. Roel answered: "I have a pretty small opinion of him. He isn't a man for the place. And 'Grandma' Wilson may be all right to run a college, but he isn't a big enough man for the presidency. They can't get a better talker than he is in the chair now, and he ought to be re-elected. One thing that we ought to be mighty careful of is how we meddle with the tariff. If we go to monkeying with it without knowing what we are about we'll have to do it again, just as sure as the world."

When asked what his opinion of Roosevelt was, Mr. Roel answered: "I have a pretty small opinion of him. He isn't a man for the place. And 'Grandma' Wilson may be all right to run a college, but he isn't a big enough man for the presidency. They can't get a better talker than he is in the chair now, and he ought to be re-elected. One thing that we ought to be mighty careful of is how we meddle with the tariff. If we go to monkeying with it without knowing what we are about we'll have to do it again, just as sure as the world."

When asked what his opinion of Roosevelt was, Mr. Roel answered: "I have a pretty small opinion of him. He isn't a man for the place. And 'Grandma' Wilson may be all right to run a college, but he isn't a big enough man for the presidency. They can't get a better talker than he is in the chair now, and he ought to be re-elected. One thing that we ought to be mighty careful of is how we meddle with the tariff. If we go to monkeying with it without knowing what we are about we'll have to do it again, just as sure as the world."

When asked what his opinion of Roosevelt was, Mr. Roel answered: "I have a pretty small opinion of him. He isn't a man for the place. And 'Grandma' Wilson may be all right to run a college, but he isn't a big enough man for the presidency. They can't get a better talker than he is in the chair now, and he ought to be re-elected. One thing that we ought to be mighty careful of is how we meddle with the tariff. If we go to monkeying with it without knowing what we are about we'll have to do it again, just as sure as the world."

When asked what his opinion of Roosevelt was, Mr. Roel answered: "I have a pretty small opinion of him. He isn't a man for the place. And 'Grandma' Wilson may be all right to run a college, but he isn't a big enough man for the presidency. They can't get a better talker than he is in the chair now, and he ought to be re-elected. One thing that we ought to be mighty careful of is how we meddle with the tariff. If we go to monkeying with it without knowing what we are about we'll have to do it again, just as sure as the world."

When asked what his opinion of Roosevelt was, Mr. Roel answered: "I have a pretty small opinion of him. He isn't a man for the place. And 'Grandma' Wilson may be all right to run a college, but he isn't a big enough man for the presidency. They can't get a better talker than he is in the chair now, and he ought to be re-elected. One thing that we ought to be mighty careful of is how we meddle with the tariff. If we go to monkeying with it without knowing what we are about we'll have to do it again, just as sure as the world."

When asked what his opinion of Roosevelt was, Mr. Roel answered: "I have a pretty small opinion of him. He isn't a man for the place. And 'Grandma' Wilson may be all right to run a college, but he isn't a big enough man for the presidency. They can't get a better talker than he is in the chair now, and he ought to be re-elected. One thing that we ought to be mighty careful of is how we meddle with the tariff. If we go to monkeying with it without knowing what we are about we'll have to do it again, just as sure as the world."

When asked what his opinion of Roosevelt was, Mr. Roel answered: "I have a pretty small opinion of him. He isn't a man for the place. And 'Grandma' Wilson may be all right to run a college, but he isn't a big enough man for the presidency. They can't get a better talker than he is in the chair now, and he ought to be re-elected. One thing that we ought to be mighty careful of is how we meddle with the tariff. If we go to monkeying with it without knowing what we are about we'll have to do it again, just as sure as the world."

When asked what his opinion of Roosevelt was, Mr. Roel answered: "I have a pretty small opinion of him. He isn't a man for the place. And 'Grandma' Wilson may be all right to run a college, but he isn't a big enough man for the presidency. They can't get a better talker than he is in the chair now, and he ought to be re-elected. One thing that we ought to be mighty careful of is how we meddle with the tariff. If we go to monkeying with it without knowing what we are about we'll have to do it again, just as sure as the world."

When asked what his opinion of Roosevelt was, Mr. Roel answered: "I have a pretty small opinion of him. He isn't a man for the place. And 'Grandma' Wilson may be all right to run a college, but he isn't a big enough man for the presidency. They can't get a better talker than he is in the chair now, and he ought to be re-elected. One thing that we ought to be mighty careful of is how we meddle with the tariff. If we go to monkeying with it without knowing what we are about we'll have to do it again, just as sure as the world."

When asked what his opinion of Roosevelt was,